Biblical discipling, as I said, is helping others to follow Jesus by doing deliberate spiritual good to them. And biblical discipling largely occurs in and through churches. It's easy for Christians today to miss this. The definition he provides for discipleship is “helping others to follow Jesus by doing deliberate spiritual good to them.”

Book Review: 'Discipling: How to Help Others Follow Jesus'

First Peter 4:10 — All Christians are to use their gifts to serve others. Acts 18:24–26 — Priscilla and Aquila, on the spur of the moment it seems, explained the way of God more accurately to Apollos. And we could go on and on. Every Christian should be helping unbelievers become believers by showing them Christ. That is making a disciple.
