Homo Faber is the title of an influential novel by the Swiss author Max Frisch, published in 1957. Other contemporary era mentions Edit. Homo faber can be also used in opposition or juxtaposition to deus faber ("God the Creator"), an archetype of which are the various gods of the forge. Homo faber is used by Pierre Schaeffer in the Traité des objets Musicaux as the man creator of music, which uses its brute experience, an instinctive practice in music creation; Concluding that the homo faber always ...

Homo Faber caused an immediate response among readers and critics. There are echoes of autobiography in the work, but not as much as in his other novels. The most direct linkage between Walter Faber and Max Frisch is that in his youth Frisch was engaged to a German Jewess who ultimately broke it off because she felt that Frisch did not love her.
