The power and the beauty of the Lord's words can only be experienced if we know for certain what Jesus believed in, so that we can believe the same. Modern Bibles assign the deserved honour to these timeless words and are separated by the rest with red ink. In this book the writer concentrates on Jesus' words but also on what Jesus said about His own words, what others said about the words of Jesus and what Jesus said about God. Dag Heward-Mills also does an in-depth study about what Jesus said about the declining ministry and that you should stay connected to God and the words of Jesus. These important words are there as motivation for pastors. The writer also warns that if we think we have forever to please God, we are living the highest kind of deception. We should start listening now.
