Post-Conviction Relief Second Last Chance Book Six of the Post-Conviction Relief Series. The book includes example motions for compassionate release, based on a Covid-19 claim. It's common knowledge, among experts in America, that thousands of people in federal prison are either over sentenced or are actually innocent. Equally so it's commonly unknown, among experts in America, that the law provides for the release of those people. At sentencing defendants are informed of their right to appeal. After appeal lawyers tell their clients about their right to file for post-conviction relief under 28 U.S.C.: 2255, but not without laughter in their voice. What they don't tell their clients is that a:2255 motion cannot be based on actual innocence or over sentencing. This book fills that gap. It explains how to action both actual innocence and over sentencing along with explaining which legal mechanism to use. It breaks the fairy tale about: 2255's one-year statute of limitations, it explains how to determine which federal prisoners are among the thousands who are actually innocent of over sentenced. Inside you will find explanations and actual filing for: Out-of-Time:2255's; Second-In-time 2255'; Second-or-Successive Authorization under 28 U.S.C.: 2244; Sentence Reduction Motions under 18 U.S.C.: 3582(c)(1)(A); Compassionate Release Motions under the First Step Act; Many different examples of motions for relief from Covid-19, with explanations of different types of circumstances; Tips on how to understand the law throughout the book; and a chapter on constructing your own pro se motion. ALL IN PLAIN ENGLISH.

2014 FIRST PLACE WINNER for MYSTERY/SUSPENSE - KINDLE BOOK PROMO / INTERNATIONAL BOOK CONTEST. Det. Blake Ervansky is first on the scene when an Oscar-winning star is shot by his ex-lover. As lead cop on the case, Ervansky has everything he needs to put away Ali Garland: motive, weapon, videos of the murder and a dozen eyewitnesses, one of whom is his partner of less than 24 hours, Sgt. Maureen O'Brien. This is LA, the beating heart of show biz, though, so nothing is as it seems, even Ervansky's new partner. Ali Garland appears to have been justified in defending herself with lethal force, but could this wide-eyed ingénue be the architect of an airtight double fake? Has she really pulled off the perfect murder? Ervansky and O'Brien will only unravel her skein of deceit when they turn to the same Hollywood magic that convinces audiences aliens can phone home, talking clown fish do search and rescue, and every hooker is just a nice girl waiting for the right millionaire.

Natalie Summers meets Robert at a private gym, and since the initial attraction, they want to do more than just work-out. They had something more steamy and hot in mind. Natalie Summers is the sister of Emma Summers from Book 1 of this series.Samples from the book:He walked up from behind her, turned to face her as he passed by, and flashed a smile. Natalie was intrigued by this hunk. His self-confidence was attractive, his gaze into her eyes appealing, and his muscular body, enclosed only by the tight, dark workout wear he was wearing, was enough to make a woman swoon. As he walked up to the bench press, Natalie noticed he changed the standard weights to the heaviest, largest weights she has ever seen. They were large circular disks made of concrete iron. The size of his biceps rival the size of the iron plates. As he pumped iron and the sweat flowed from his forehead, Natalie can feel a hot sensation coming from within her. Just looking at him pump iron made her heart race. His face, his squirming, his determination really turned her on. He finished his set of workout at the bench press, sat up and looked at Natalie confidently. She was petite at five feet one, but she felt even smaller than that. For some reason Natalie felt shy and casually looked away, breaking the uncomfortable eye contact. But she longed to gaze into his eyes. She was conflicted with what her body wanted and what her heart wanted. With her peripheral vision, she was able to see that he had gotten to his feet and was walking towards her. "Miss Summers, can you please spot for me on the bench press?" he said. "I've booked the entire gym for us today, so no one else will be coming in today," said Robert, "we have the whole gym, swimming pool, sauna, steam room, and Jacuzzi to ourselves." "That's great!" said Natalie, who couldn't believe all the trouble Robert would go through and spend money to make her happy. "I know you can't really do your workout routine when others are around watching," said Robert, "today, I'll give you a private coaching session you'll never forget. It will be special." "Oh, how special?" Natalie was intrigued. "Let's start with our warm up," said Robert, "follow my lead." He proceeded to do some stretching, and Natalie imitated him. "No, this is how you do it," said Robert as he walked over to where Natalie was. He took her arms and helped her twist. He then grabbed her waist, and helped her turn. She giggled as he touched her. With Natalie standing with her legs apart and arms forward in a diving motion, Robert patted Natalie on the behind and said, "stick this out more." Natalie smiled and complied. After the stretching, Robert decided to do some core muscle workout. Tags: love, inspire, marriage, respect, romance books, love languages, adult, fiction, stories, romantic, men, women, dating

It's 1940, and Jack Kelly isn't your typical hero figure. He's an FBI agent, but he's also a drinker, womanizer, and dirty talker. He isn't well-liked at the bureau, even though, with a law degree, he's over-qualified. He doesn't listen to his superiors; he doesn't even like his superiors, but putting up with them is all part of the job. When he's sent to Hawaii to look into Japanese activity, he goes because it's what Washington tells him to do. It's suspected that the Japanese have sent spies into Hawaii to cause trouble. The spies operate like a gang, threatening violence and death to anyone in their way and Kelly is prepared to get in their way. Although not keen on the boys in Washington, Kelly is a patriot. As his investigation delves deeper, he runs into a mysterious and beautiful woman who charms him from the start. But is she in Hawaii with ulterior motives? Soon, the lady becomes Public Enemy Number One. She is suspected of assassinating a witness a witness who could have brought down the destructive spies from Japan. Kelly is the FBI's only hope. In order to find the truth, he might have to break some hearts and some bones. But is this devil-may-care agent really fighting a battle against foreign aggressors or his own pride?
